BUENOS AIRES

Flying to 14 domestic destinations

Base of our domestic operation

TANGO / THEATERS / CULTURE / PLANETARIUM / MUSEUMS / ART / ARCHITECTURE / CONCERTS / SPORTS

A cosmopolitan place, one of the cultural capitals of South America. Its art, architecture, passion for football, and good food make this city one of the most visited destinations in South America.

SALTA

Up to 21 weekly flights from Buenos Aires*

CULTURE / CATHEDRALS / MUSEUMS / THEATERS

Located in the northwest, Salta is the gateway to one of the most visited regions of the country. It has a well-preserved colonial architecture, which offers museums and a variety of excellent restaurants so it is ideal for gastronomic routes.

BARILOCHE

Up to 35 weekly flights from Buenos Aires* during peak season

SKIING / LAKES/ VOLCANO / CANOEING / NATURE / MOUNTAINS / FORESTS

Tourism is the main industry of this city, located on the shores of Lake Nahuel Huapi. Bariloche is home to the largest ski resort in South America, Cerro Catedral. Because of its geography, Bariloche has become the perfect place for adventure tourism; mountain trekking, ice climbing and rafting.

EL CALAFATE

Up to 14 weekly flights (from September to April)*

Departures from Buenos Aires and Ushuaia

GLACIERS / LAKES / MOUNTAINEERING / CAMPING / ADVENTURE TRAVEL / PATAGONIA

World famous for the Perito Moreno glacier, a huge wall of ice 5 km long and 60 m high, this city is in the foothills of the Andes.

IGUAZU

Up to 28 weekly flights from Buenos Aires*

WATER FALLS / CASINOS / FORESTS / EXOTIC ANIMALS / CONCERTS

Located in the eco-region of the Parana jungle in northeastern Argentina, this city owes much of its fame to the breathtaking Iguazu Falls, recently named one of the new seven wonders of the world.

USHUAIA

Up to 14 weekly flights from Buenos Aires*

SKIING / GLACIERS / PENGUINS / MOUNTAINEERING / MOUNTAINS / CAMPING / LIGHTHOUSES

Known as the southernmost city in the world, Ushuaia is located on the shores of the Beagle Channel. Its port is one of the largest in South America, where cruises depart to the Strait of Magellan, the Falkland Islands and Antarctica.
