SANTIAGO

Flying to 16 domestic destinations

Base of our domestic operation

PARKS / DRAMA / CULTURE / MUSEUMS / ARCHITECTURE / WINES / ART / SKIING

A cosmopolitan city, one of the cultural capitals of South America. Its art, architecture, passion for football, and good food make it one of the most visited destinations in South America. It is located near the ski resorts “El Colorado” and “Valle Nevado”.

SAN PEDRO DE ATACAMA

Up to 70 weekly flights from Santiago (Calama)*

DESERTS / VOLCANOES / SALT LAKES / LAGOONS / GEYSERS

San Pedro de Atacama is well known for its many attractions. An oasis in the driest desert in the world, with the clearest skies on the planet and starry nights. Besides volcanoes, salt lakes, lagoons, geysers, and a small town that seems as if time left it behind, it is a destination that combines the magic of the Andean highlands with a well developed structure of tourism and hospitality.

EASTER ISLAND

Up to 8 weekly flights from Santiago*

VOLCANOES / STATUES / CULTURE / SURF / DIVING / ARCHEOLOGY

Its inhabitants call it Rapa Nui or Tepito Ote Henua (“Navel of the World”). It is the most remote inhabited island in the world. A World Heritage Site by Unesco, Easter Island is world famous for its iconic statues called “Moai”. Located in the Pacific Ocean, it has pink sand beaches at Anakena or Ovahe, wide meadows for walking or riding, dormant volcanoes and caves to explore. It also has flora and fauna that are perfect for lovers of snorkeling and scuba diving.

PUERTO VARAS

Up to 35 weekly flights during peak season from Buenos Aires*

LAKES / NATURE / GARDENS / CASINO

Known as the “City of Roses” for the abundance of flowers that adorn the streets. Puerto Varas is a city that combines the beauty of southern Chile and its relaxed pace with an excellent tourist infrastructure, including good hotels and restaurants as well as a first class casino and a variety of places to visit.

TORRES DEL PAINE

Up to 28 flights weekly from Santiago (Punta Arenas)*

PARKS / MOUNTAINS / RIVERS / LAKES / FAUNA / FLORA / ADVENTURE / ECOTOURISM

Chosen as the Eighth Wonder of the World, from hundreds of destinations around the world, the Torres del Paine National Park has received this honor because it is one of the most beautiful, unique, and unspoiled places in the world. Its main attractions are its spectacular mountains, the great towers that turn red at dawn and dusk, lakes, flora and fauna making it ideal for ecotourism and adventure sports.
