BOGOTA

CONCERTS / CULTURE / MUSIC / THEATER / MUSEUMS

Political, economic, financial, cultural, and tourist center of Colombia, this city is also known for its colonial architecture, art collection of pre-Columbian gold, majestic colonial churches, and splendid museums. The charming Candelaria district, the historical center of cobblestone streets, is home to the most traditional attractions such as the Gold Museum and Mount Monserrat.

CARTAGENA DE INDIAS

BEACHES / HISTORY / NIGHTLIFE / CULTURE

Up to 41 weekly flights from Bogota*

Located on the shores of the Caribbean, this Colombian city offers a mix of culture and entertainment, with its famous beaches and colonial architecture throughout the year with hot water. The historic center, known as the "Walled City", has an impressive 13 km colonial stone walls built in the last century.

SANTA MARTA

BEACHES / FAUNA / FLORA / ARCHITECTURE

Up to 21 weekly flights from Bogota*

Located on the shores of the Caribbean, Santa Marta is one of the oldest cities in South America. Its location between the Sierra Nevada de Santa Marta, with the highest peaks of the country, and the Caribbean Sea, makes it attractive to visit for the variety of flora and fauna present in the area, together with its cultural and historical sites.

CALI

Up to 49 weekly flights from Bogota*

MUSIC / SALSA / CULTURE / SPORTS / THEATER / RIVERS

Santiago de Cali, better known as the “Capital of Salsa Colombia” is the second most populous city. It is located in a mountain valley, which gives it a spring climate, almost all year round. Cali is one of the main economic, industrial and tourist centers. You can even find entire neighborhoods devoted to tourism, including Granada, one of the most traditional areas of Cali, which offers several gourmet restaurants, trendy shops, and boutiques.

MEDELLIN

Up to 57 weekly flights from Bogota*

CULTURE / MUSIC / ARCHITECTURE / PARKS

Known as the “City of Eternal Spring”, thanks to its excellent climate throughout the year. There are many reasons why Medellín is a prime tourist destination: its topography, a valley surrounded by mountains, the warmth of the people, the “paisa” (the nickname of Medellín residents), and its culture. A massive festival of flowers takes place in the city every August.

SAN ANDRES

Up to 17 weekly flights from Bogota*

BEACHES / MUSIC / ECOTOURISM

Recognized by the United Nations as a Biosphere Reserve, this beautiful Caribbean island shows a mix of cultures and influences, including English, Spanish, pirate and privateer, producing a very diverse culture. This is the perfect place to enjoy the beach, water sports, diving, and ecotourism.
