Up to 65 weekly flights from Guayaquil*

VOLCANOES / CULTURE / MUSEUMS / CONCERTS / CHURCHES / MIDDLE OF THE WORLD

Located high in the Andes, Quito is the capital and most dynamic city in Ecuador, with a fascinating collection of neighborhoods full of historical monuments and architectural treasures. Here lies Ecuador's famous line that sets the division between the northern and southern hemispheres, where unusual experiments can be performed.

Up to 65 weekly flights from Quito*

MONUMENTS / CULTURE / MUSIC / SPORT / MARKETS

Financial, political and cultural center of the country, Guayaquil is a large, vibrant and one of the most important ports in the Eastern Pacific city. The picturesque neighborhood of Las Peñas, at the base of the Santa Ana Mountains, is famous for its colonial architecture and for being the birthplace of the city.

Up to 65 weekly flights from Quito (Guayaquil)*

SURF / BEACH / BARS / ECOTOURISM / MARKETS

Located 200 km from Guayaquil, this typical Ecuadorian coastal city is well known to the surfing community for its perfect waves, which can reach up to 8.2 ft (2.5 m) high. It is also a meeting point for young foreigners who visit to relax, have some fun and be close to nature.

CUENCA

Up to 65 weekly flights from Quito*

HISTORICAL CENTER / CULTURE / CERAMICS / HATS

Cuenca is a beautiful colonial city in Ecuador. It is famous for its Barranco district, where “hanging houses” seem to be floating over the Tomebamba river. As an emblematic historical city center, it was declared a World Heritage Site by Unesco. It also offers visitors traditional crafts, such as pottery, jewelry, and the internationally known Panama hats.

GALAPAGOS ISLANDS

NATURE / PARKS / FAUNA / FLORA / DIVING

The Galapagos National Park is one of the most attractive tourist destinations in Ecuador, known worldwide for its native flora and fauna, including giant tortoises, iguanas, and other prehistoric species not found anywhere else in the world. It was here that the British naturalist Charles Darwin conducted studies that led him to establish his theory of evolution by natural selection.

BALTRA-SANTA CRUZ

Located in the center of the archipelago, most of the population of Santa Cruz resides in its capital, Puerto Ayora. North of Santa Cruz, through a narrow passage is the island of Baltra, where one of the major airports in the islands is located.

Up to 9 weekly flights from Guayaquil (to Baltra)*

Up to 3 weekly flights from Quito (to Baltra)*

SAN CRISTÓBAL

Puerto Baquerizo Moreno on San Cristobal. It is home to various species, some of which are only found on these islands. You'll find a diversity of giant turtles, dolphins, sharks, frigate birds, sea lions, marine iguanas, as well as blue-footed and red-footed boobies.

Up to 4 weekly flights from Guayaquil*
