LIMA

CONCERTS / MUSEUMS / BEACHES / CULTURE / MUSIC
THEATERS / MARKETS / GASTRONOMY

Located on the central coast of Peru on the Pacific Ocean, Lima is also known as the “City of Kings”. It is the capital and largest city in Peru. Once the richest viceroyalty of South America, it remains an important political, cultural, and economic center.

This modern metropolis has kept intact the beauty of its colonial architecture, offering excellent museums and art galleries, as well as modern shopping centers and peerless gastronomy.

MANCORA

BEACHES / SURF

Up to 14 weekly flights to Tumbes from Lima*

Up to 42 weekly flights to Piura from Lima*

Up to 7 weekly flights to Talara Lima*

With reliable sunshine almost 300 days a year, low humidity and hot water, this is one of the best spas in the Peruvian coast. Ideal for surfing, kayaking, relaxing, and fun, Mancora has accommodations and restaurants for all budgets. It offers an exquisite cuisine based on fish and seafood.

PUERTO MALDONADO

JUNGLE / RIVERS / LAKES / ECOTOURISM

Up to 14 weekly flights from Lima*

Puerto Maldonado has plenty of forests, winding rivers, and abundant wildlife. It is a nature reserve and a haven for endangered species like the maned wolf and marsh deer. This region is home to native communities that promote ecotourism in one of the most biodiverse areas in the world.

CUZCO

Up to 20 daily flights from Lima.* The only airline with flights departing between 16:00 and 19:00 hours, for better international connections

CULTURE / ARCHAEOLOGY / LAMAS / MOUNTAINEERING

Cuzco is also known as the Archaeological Capital of America, or “center of the world” (meaning of its name in Quechua, the indigenous language of the country). A living history museum, the ancient capital of the Inca Empire is without doubt one of the most fascinating cities in the Peruvian highlands.

PUNO

Up to 31 weekly flights from Lima (Juliaca)*

FOLKLORE / LAKES / ARCHAEOLOGY / MOUNTAINEERING

Puno, a place sacred to the Incas, is considered the folkloric capital of Peru and America. It is dominated by Lake Titicaca, the world’s largest navigable lake to large vessels, which lies more than 12,500 ft (3.800 m) above sea level. Aside from numerous natural and artificial islands, Puno offers attractive archaeological pre-Hispanic circular shaped buildings known as “chullpas” from the time they were built.

AREQUIPA

Up to 11 daily flights from Lima*

VOLCANOES / ALPACAS / CONDORS / MINES

It is known as the “White City” for its churches and houses built of white volcanic stone. Arequipa has snowcapped mountains, volcanoes like Misti, and deep canyons such as Colca and Cotahuasi. Arequipa has one of the most beautiful Plaza de Armas squares in Peru.
